Description:	This course introduces students to the writing of poetry and fiction through the practices that comprise the writing lives of published authors. It is designed to familiarize students with the literary traditions and possibilities of these forms, to help them explore creative reading/writing/editing processes, and to discover their talents. The main premise of this course is that words are transformative and it is hoped that students will approach this experience with openness, humility, ability to work through the frustration of a challenge and willingness to take risks so that they may transform themselves into emerging artists of the written word.
